

Alfred Ford Jr Barn

One of the prominent names in Wallsburg is Ford, and Alfred Ford, Jr. and his wife ran the little store in Wallsburg for 40 years. He and Molinda also ran the creamery in Wallsburg. He built a barn at about 190 East 200 South approximately 70 years ago with the help of a son.

The red pine for the barn came out of Strawberry Valley. The east side of the barn was replaced years later. Like most barns, it was used for hay storage with a shed in which to milk the cows. Subsequent owners were Howard and Harold Ford.
